

Deadlines

Separate deadlines have been created for both spring-of-senior-year graduates and for fall-of-senior year graduates. If you are graduating some other semester, please contact the PNP Honors Coordinator for deadlines and advice.

Submission instructions:

- The Honors Thesis Application (including the Reading list), the Progress Report, and the Thesis Defense Form should be submitted in hard copy to the PNP Program Administrative Assistant.
- The Prospectus and the Final Version should be emailed to the PNP Program Administrative Assistant, whose contact information can be found here:

<https://philosophy.artsci.wustl.edu/staff>

PNP Honors Application: Initial Project Proposal. Provides topic, brief description, and preliminary reading list. Also lists Primary Advisor. Must be signed by your Primary Advisor. Student is responsible for getting the application signed and for submitting it. Submit to PNP Administrative Assistant in hard copy.

Due date:

Spring graduates: by end of last week of class, spring semester of junior year

Fall graduates: by the second Friday in December of junior year

PNP Honors Prospectus: Elaborated Project Proposal. Provides longer description, outline of project, and updated reading list. Also lists your Secondary Advisor. Email to PNP Administrative Assistant.

Due date:

Spring graduates: by end of first week of class in fall semester of senior year

Fall graduates: by Friday before Memorial Day in summer before senior year

PNP Honors Mid-Project Evaluation:

Indicates whether or not you are on target to complete your Solid Draft by the Solid Draft deadline. Must be signed by your Primary Advisor. Student is responsible for getting the report signed and for submitting it. Submit to PNP Administrative Assistant in hard copy.

Due date:

Spring graduates: by second Friday in December of senior year

Fall graduates: by the end of the first week of class of senior year

Solid Draft:

The Solid Draft is a polished draft of the complete paper. This is the first draft that your Secondary Advisor must receive. (They may request to see earlier versions as well.) They must have time to read it and provide you with feedback on it, which you use in creating your Defense Draft.

Due date:

Spring graduates: by end of the first week of spring semester of senior year

Fall graduates:	by the Friday before Fall Break of senior year
Defense Draft:	This is the version that your advisors will evaluate at your thesis defense. Submit to them by email or in hard copy, whichever they prefer.
Due date:
Spring graduates:	by first Friday in March of senior year
Fall graduates:	by Friday before Thanksgiving of senior year
Thesis Defense Form:	The Thesis Defense Form indicates whether or not the student has successfully defended their Honors Project. Must be signed at your defense by both your advisors. Student is responsible for bringing the form, getting it signed, and for submitting it afterwards. Submit in hard copy to PNP Administrative Assistant.
Due date:
Spring graduates:	by end of first week after spring break of senior year
Fall graduates:	by December 15 of senior year
Final Version:	This is the paper that you will submit to the PNP Program after making any revisions requested by your advisors at your defense and after formatting the document to meet the formatting requirements for a PNP Honors Thesis. Email to PNP Administrative Assistant.
Due date:
Spring graduates:	by April 15 of senior year
Fall graduates:	by January 7 of senior year